

The Six Thinking Hats® Facilitator Pack

Having completed your Six Thinking Hats® training you may like to think about how you can introduce your team to the concept.

As the UK & European Distributor for Dr de Bono's work, Indigo are pleased to offer you a unique pack of additional materials to help introduce the techniques to others in your team.

Contents

Six Thinking Hats® Posters (set of 6)

These colourful posters will help reinforce the use of each hat. They are great reminders to support your learning and to use in conference rooms and meetings.

Six Thinking Hats® Slide Rule

A quick prompt for each hat, plus suggested sequences and tips for timing, all in one cleverly made slide rule that can be kept in your organiser or meeting folder.

De Bono Notepaper (100 sheets)

Perfect for Hats meetings as a gentle reminder of the hats and to note down your results.

Facilitator Cards (Set of 6)

Having been trained in the Hats, you are a Six Hats Facilitator. These cards provide a colourful pictorial reminder on one side with detailed notes about the use of the specific hat on the other. The cards will remind your team which hat to use, while you can simply read the instructions for the hat at the same time.

Random Word Cards (Set of 22)

Draw a card and use the image to develop a new idea using de Bono's Random Word Technique.

Six Thinking Hats® Overview with Random Words

Keep this A4 summary on your notice board or in your meeting binder. An ideal quick reference.

The Blue Hat Practice Cards (set of 9)

Put yourself into the shoes of a blue hat facilitator and challenge yourself to solve common problems in Six Hats meetings and group dynamics.

Six Thinking Hats® Top Hats (set of 6)

Individually coloured velvet Tops Hats for use as visual aids and gentle reminders during Six Hats meetings.
